A heads up before you head to the Kan

Last weekend Santa Claus* was in fact spotted on the Kananaskis river dishing out gifts from his bag full of brain freeze. We recommend protecting yourself and your friends from this feisty bearded freak* with the NRS Storm Hood ($44.95) and a pair of NRS Toaster Mitts ($49.95)

Santa's Little Helper recommends the NRS Canine flotation device $59.95

Just like Mr. Claus* himself, "Santa's Little Helper" can sometimes be down right retentive. Next time you take your dog for a run and or swim along you're your favorite stretch of river don't forget your dog's flotation device. What better way to surprise your best friend at Christmas.

NRS Canine flotation device $59.95

- *Santa Claus and Santa's Little Helper are two well known rapids on the Kananaskis River, a popular area for running your dog while paddling some fun whitewater. By the way, none of the staff at Aquabatics really think santa is a freak
